REMARKS FROM DR. MATTHEW PRESTON, PRESIDENT OF TORNADOES SWIM CLUB AT THE 2026 TORNADOES INVITATIONAL SWIM MEET

Good morning everyone,

To our sponsors :

Main Sponsors: Scotiabank, Wisynco (Wata, Lucozade, Tru shake), rainforest, main event

Our Associate Sponsors: general accident, Carimed, vale ops security limited, Bright Beginnings Foundation, Recycling partners of jamaica

To our parents, coaches, officials, volunteers, and members of the media, thank you. This meet, would not be possible, without your support

You know, standing here as president of the club feels a little strange sometimes, because when I think about Tornadoes... I still picture myself as a little skinny kid shivering on the pool deck at 5 in the morning.

At the time, I thought swimming, was just about racing. But looking back now, I realize swimming taught me a lot more than that. It taught me discipline. It taught me, how to show up even when I was tired.

How to prepare and be organized. How to push through discomfort. How to wake up, even on mornings I did not feel like getting out of bed. And honestly, a lot of those lessons followed me far beyond the pool. Into academics, business, leadership and just life in general.

But swimming also gave me something else. It gave me friendships. Some of my closest friends today, are people I met through Tornadoes over 15 years ago. Even now, I can call on them for help and guidance. Tornadoes became more than just a swim club to me. It became a family.

And that, is why this meet matters. Yes, it is about competition. Yes, it is about medals and breaking records. But it is also about giving young people the opportunity to develop confidence, resilience, discipline, friendships, and make memories that can shape the rest of their lives

So on behalf of Tornadoes Swim Club, thank you again for being part of this journey with us.

We look forward to welcoming swimmers, families, and supporters to the National Stadium Pool this weekend for what we believe will be an exciting and memorable meet.

Thank you and let us make this year's Tornadoes Swim Meet a great success.

MESSAGE FROM WENDY LEE, HEAD COACH, TORNADOES SWIM CLUB AND MEET DIRECTOR

On behalf of the Tornadoes Swim Club, I would like to extend a very warm welcome to all swimmers, coaches, officials, parents, volunteers, and clubs joining us for our annual swim meet.

At Tornadoes, we firmly believe in the development of local athletes. We are incredibly proud of the talent that Jamaica continues to produce from our athletes who train right here at the National Aquatic Centre. We believe deeply that Jamaica has the ability to develop world-class athletes from within our own programmes, our own pools, and our own coaches and swimmers.

We are extremely excited to host this meet and to welcome so many talented clubs from across the island. Your participation is what makes events like this meaningful and successful, and we sincerely thank every club for being here this weekend.

We, the swim clubs, the ASAJ executives, coaches, swimmers, parents, sponsors, officials, and pool crew – are all one family, united by a shared passion and a common goal: the growth and development of the sport of swimming.

Together, we continue to build an environment where our athletes can develop, thrive, and proudly represent Jamaica both locally and on the international stage. United by purpose, teamwork, and a love for the sport, we move swimming forward together.

As always, I want to say a very special thank you to our incredible Tornadoes parents and volunteers who have gone above and beyond to create a swim meet experience that supports not only our athletes, but also the coaches, officials, and families. Your hard work, sacrifice, and commitment are deeply appreciated, and this event would not be possible without you.

To all swimmers competing this weekend, congratulations on the work you have put in to get here. We encourage you to compete with courage, pride, and sportsmanship. Enjoy the experience, trust your preparation, support one another, and most importantly, have fun.

We are looking forward to three days of exciting racing, outstanding performances, and memorable moments in the pool. We wish all clubs and athletes the very best this weekend.

Welcome to the Tornadoes Annual Swim Meet – and let the racing begin.
Thank you.

REMARKS FROM SABRINA LYN, OLY, GUEST SPEAKER FOR 2026
TORNADOES INVITATIONAL SWIM MEET MEDIA LAUNCH

Good morning everyone,

I'm going to keep it as brief as possible but as someone who has grown up in Tornadoes and has in turn watched it grow, it's a great honour to be the guest speaker at the 24th Tornadoes Invitational Swim Meet. I can credit Tornadoes to how far I've reached in swimming.

There's a reason that I feel comfortable enough to come home and train for some of the biggest meets of my career with Tornadoes. I trust the coaches and the team to hold and reach the standard of training that is on par with my college program. The swimmers provide much needed camaraderie and support as training partners that keep my motivation up enough to show up day in day out to each training.

Thank you to the parents and swimmers of the club who have continued its greatness and thank you to the executive body that has put in the work to ensure that this meet will go as smoothly as possible.

Congratulations Tornadoes on hosting this meet for the 24th year and I wish you all the best in the following years.

SCOTIA GROUP

Remarks

Tornadoes Invitational Swim Meet 2026

Debra Lopez-Spence

Good morning everyone,

It is a pleasure to join you as we launch the Tornadoes Invitational Swim Meet 2026.

On behalf of Scotia Group, I extend warm greetings and congratulations to the organisers, athletes, coaches, parents, and supporters who continue to elevate swimming in Jamaica.

We are proud to return as a partner of this meet—an event that reflects discipline, commitment, and excellence. Supporting initiatives like this matters deeply to us because they create opportunities for our young people to grow, compete, and reach their full potential.

Swimming is more than a sport—it is a true test of character. It teaches resilience, focus, confidence, and perseverance.

As Olympic champion Katie Ledecky reminds us, “You can’t put a limit on anything. The more you dream, the farther you get.”

That spirit defines this sport—the early mornings, the relentless training, and the belief that you can always go further.

We also believe strongly in access and inclusion. Every child should have the opportunity to feel safe and confident in the water, and to discover their potential—whether for competition or for life.

At Scotia Group, we remain committed to initiatives that empower individuals and strengthen communities.

Through our work in insurance, banking, and investments, we help families build secure futures.

Our promise—“Your future is safe with us”—is about more than financial security; it is about investing in people and potential.

The Tornadoes Invitational Swim Meet represents excellence, teamwork, and determination—qualities we proudly support.

To all the swimmers: we celebrate your dedication. Continue to push yourselves and strive for excellence in and out of the pool.

Thank you, and I wish you a successful and inspiring meet.

REMARKS FROM KRISTINA CHUCK-SMITH, TREASURER, AQUATIC SPORTS ASSOCIATION OF JAMAICA (AT THE OFFICIAL MEDIA LAUNCH)

Distinguished guests, sponsors, coaches, athletes, parents, members of the media, and friends of aquatics, good morning

This morning is especially meaningful for me personally because I stand before you wearing many hats.

I speak to you as the Treasurer of the Aquatic Sports Association of Jamaica, committed to helping ensure that our sport continues to grow sustainably and professionally.

But I also stand here as one of the founding swimmers of the Tornadoes Swim Club – someone who was there in the early days, who helped build the culture and spirit of the club, and who has had the privilege of watching this meet grow into one of the premier competitions on our local swimming calendar.

I stand here as a current parent, experiencing firsthand the sacrifices, early mornings, long evenings, and unwavering commitment that families make to support our athletes.

I stand here as a coach, understanding the discipline, preparation, and encouragement required to help swimmers develop and succeed.

And perhaps most uniquely, I stand here as a current Masters swimmer who will also be competing in this very meet.

That combination gives me a very special appreciation for what this event truly represents.

The Tornadoes Invitational is more than just a swim meet. It is a celebration of community, development, resilience, and excellence.

It brings together generations of swimmers – from young athletes experiencing competition for the very first time, to seasoned Masters swimmers who continue to demonstrate that passion for sport lasts a lifetime.

This meet showcases not only athletic performance, but also the life lessons swimming teaches: discipline, perseverance, teamwork, accountability, and courage.

As Treasurer of the ASAJ, I also want to recognize the tremendous value that events like these bring to Jamaican aquatics. They create opportunities for athletes, coaches, officials, vendors, and families. They strengthen our sporting ecosystem and help prepare our swimmers for success at regional and international levels.

To the sponsors and supporters — thank you.
Your partnership makes opportunities like this possible.
Investment in swimming is an investment in youth development, healthy lifestyles, national pride, and Jamaica's future.

To the athletes:
Compete fiercely. Represent yourselves, the club, and your families with pride. Remember that success is not measured only by medals, but also by character, effort, and growth.

And finally, to Tornadoes Swim Club:
My home away from home where my love for swimming started; where my daughter's love for swimming now flourishes.

Congratulations on continuing to build something impactful and lasting.

From founding swimmer to parent, coach, swimmer, and administrator, I can honestly say how proud I am to see what this meet has become.

I look forward to an exciting, competitive, and inspiring 2026 Tornadoes Invitational Swim Meet.

Thank you, and may this meet be a tremendous success for everyone involved.
